

JOANNE ~ 50-70 capable, grounded, a little beleaguered with life and her caretaking duties, she has a private, dry sense of humor.

RIGHTY ~ 50-70 seems to be struggling with mental issues but never descends into full-on confusion. There is a sharpness to him that many dementia and Alzheimer's patients can display, where on certain topics they are comfortable and confident. He probably wears a similar outfit most of the time, and maybe it's a little preppy, although it seems Joanne dresses him. A New England type.

TIM ~ 30-50 a real estate developer, he thinks and speaks quickly. He believes that his insults and criticisms are good advice so he dispenses these in a way that almost sounds gentle and reasonable. He also doesn't linger too much with an insult - he just lightly moves on, which is probably worse. He is fairly successful at what he does, though he has not yet had a huge triumph, and his financial situation is somewhat precarious.

DONNA ~ 20-50 professional and smart, she has committed to the real estate industry. She is making a push to really get her life together and is almost there.

GREY ~ 30-50 he's fairly private, fairly self-reliant. He's both a Science and Math type, and also an Arts and Nature type, but he doesn't need people to know these things about himself. He has an idea of where he wants to go in life but isn't fully there yet.
